Booking Conditions

- Courses cannot be run for under 18 year olds unless they are accompanied for the duration of the course by their parent or guardian.
- Bookings are confirmed on receipt of a 50% non-refundable deposit. The balance is due no less than 4 weeks prior to the course commencing. If the booking is less than 4 weeks in advance the complete fee should be paid.
- If the customer cancels less than 4 weeks before the commencement of the course the entire course fees are non-refundable. If the course is cancelled by James Edwards or his associates the customer is entitled to either another booking on a different date or a full refund.
- All bookings are made on the basis that the customer will strictly observe the safety instructions given by James Edwards or his associates. If you choose to ignore this advice you do so at your own risk and forfeit a duty of care from James Edwards or his associates.
- James Edwards and his associates reserve the right to exclude customers from activities they are not adequately prepared or fit enough for and where their involvement may jeopardise their own, other customers or the guide's safety. No refund will be made to clients excluded on these safety grounds.
- The customer is responsible for all equipment issued for use during the course. James Edwards and his associates reserve the right to charge for their equipment that is lost or misused by customers.
- James Edwards and his associates accept no liability for customers personal property lost or damaged during a course.
- Customers must expect to be involved in adventurous, physically and mentally demanding activities. You should be prepared for this and be in good general health. You should complete the medical section of this form and declare any further relevant medical information arising between booking and the course commencing.
- You should also be aware that mountaineering is highly subject to local weather and conditions and whilst every effort will be made to meet your course aims sometimes this will not be safe or practical. In this event every effort will be made to offer suitable alternatives but no refunds will be available.
- It is the customer's responsibility to obtain their own appropriate insurance prior to the course.
- It is the customer's responsibility to organize accommodation and transport to and from the venue. This is not included in the fee.
- James Edwards or his associates may include images taken from the day on the High Mountaineering blog or elsewhere. If you have objections to this please inform James Edwards in writing.
